

Volume 5: Terry Kennedy, Skateboarder

Name _____ Date _____ Class _____

Natural High: Any activity, art form or sport that you love to do and that does not involve drugs.

Role Model: Any person who shows the qualities or interests that you admire.

Watch the clip about Terry Kennedy and answer the following questions:

1. How did Terry describe the skate park that he went to when he was younger?
2. How was this skate park different from his normal life in Long Beach, California?
3. How old was Terry Kennedy when he first heard about drugs? _____
4. Name two ways that Terry's mother's drug use affected his life while he was growing up?
 1. _____
 2. _____
5. What eventually happened to Terry's mother?
6. What does Terry mean when he talks about "positive" and "negative" forces in his life?
7. At one point, Terry Kennedy says, "Drugs change who you are." How did drugs affect his mother and the way she treated him as a mother?
8. Terry Kennedy said that he had two choices in life. What were those two choices?
 1. _____
 2. _____Which one did he pick?
9. At the end of the clip Terry gives three pieces of advice, what are they?
 1. _____
 2. _____
 3. _____
10. What is your own "Natural High and how can it keep you "positive" in your life?