

Answer Sheet: Josh Landan

1. He started by filming surfers like Taylor Steel and others that he admired. Then, he started to film and manage skaters and surfers. He started making music videos as well, and won awards for his work.
2. Jon Sundt, who is a surfer himself, really liked the work that Josh did, and he called him personally and asked him to film the Natural High® DVD Series.
3. Josh has two kids of his own. He would want his own kids to see the film at school and live the healthy lifestyle promoted by the film and the Natural High organization.
4. Drugs would blow all of the work that Josh has done to make it to where he is today. He needs to be self sufficient, driven and ambitious. Drugs change all of that. People he knew in Ventura got into drugs and it really affected them and those around them.
